I feel that my son/daughter has received good guidance on GCSE options	11	28	3		it wasn't an easy process to choose!
I feel better informed about the Key Stage 4 Curriculum and how it operates	22	20	1		A brief sheet may have been of value
This GCSE Information Evening has been useful in informing me how I might support my son/daughter	25	17	1		Bit general
I know what to do if I need more information about Key Stage 4 courses	27	14	1		Hopefully more will be on the school website; website

I wish the information evening had started before this. My son who is now 19 would have benefitted from this too.

We need to know when the controlled assessments are so that we can plan together.

Couldn't hear at the back of the hall. Written information would be more useful.

Very useful

Very well presented

We did find it difficult to get to the bottom of the implications of choice between double and triple science, but our daughter got there in the end...hope she made a good choice!

Handouts would have been useful.

Very informative especially given the changes to assessment methods

Thanks - it was useful to meet some of the teachers and hear this information first hand

As a parent of a year 11 I missed last year's evening so I have come tonight. children can tap into for help with revision, and general information about when they need to revise and the different ways can.

encourage them to revise
