- Appointment at 4.30pm, waited until 5pm then gave up waiting
- Put numbers on the teacher's tables in addition to their names.
- Why doesn't the headmaster speak to parents whilst they wait in the queues, he's letting his staff down, be seen and show active interest in progress of his pupils.
- Would have liked pupils to have Children in Need and pay £1 – towards children in need!
- Thank you for the honest feedback and I would welcome a telephone call if you consider my son to be at risk of not achieving target grades or if effort is not improving. Thank you
