

The School's Response to Parental Views - Geography

Learning and Teaching

Very pleasing! Although we continue to seek further improvement through on-going development.

Sometimes the homework schedule is erratic – Further investigation needed and possibly further action.

A field trip this year would be great – A lot of discussions have taken place about field trips. The department is considering running another international fieldtrip .