

Home/School Agreement - 'Achieving success, valuing others'

Pupils and parents are requested to sign a home school agreement which clarifies the high standards we expect from all our pupils. The school believes strongly that young people perform at their best when rules on behaviour and respect are applied consistently. Parents and school, working in partnership to support our young people is vital for this to be successfully achieved.

Helsby High School agrees to:

- provide a framework of teaching, learning and guidance appropriate to the age and ability of each individual young person
- provide a safe and secure environment
- set and mark classwork and home study tasks in line with school and subject policies
- keep parents informed about the progress of their child
- contact parents if there are problems/concerns with attendance/punctuality, behaviour or equipment
- provide a range of extra-curricular activities
- make every effort to enable all students to achieve high standards of work and behaviour by building positive relationships and developing a sense of individual responsibility
- teach students the principles of personal safety, including, online safety and support them in the appropriate use of social media and technology
- value all students as individual members of the school community
